Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) Internship Opportunity!!

May 29-Aug 10 2012 Hawaii Volcanoes National Park

Student wanted to participate in a 10-week REU conservation biology internship in Hawai'i!!

Project Description

Lepidoptera (particularly moths) are diverse in Hawai'i, comprising more than 1000 species. The Caterpillar stage is important to ecosystem health because it helps recycle nutrients and is a critical food source for native Hawaiian forest birds and predatory arthropods, such as spiders and beetles. Unfortunately, Lepidoptera abundances are being reduced in many Hawaiian habitats by alien parasitoid wasps that attack and kill caterpillars. U.S. Geological Survey and University of Hawai'i at Hilo researchers are looking for an REU intern to help conduct research aimed to understand the effects of these alien wasps on native caterpillars. The intern will be responsible for collecting caterpillars from a range of host plants and rearing them in the lab to identify parasitoid wasps. The primary objectives of the research are to identify the diversity of parasitoid wasps and to determine rates at which caterpillars are attacked. This is a unique opportunity for a student interested in conservation biology to gain experience conducting research and to participate in a program aimed to understand threats to island ecosystems. But to be successful, the intern must be willing to hike over rough terrain, spend long days in the field, work independently, and have enthusiasm for entomological research, including identifying insects using a microscope.

The internship provides round-trip transportation to Hawaii, living expenses, and housing.

The internship is sponsored by the University of Hawaii at Hilo's Research Experience For Undergraduates (REU) Program and the Louis Stokes Alliances for Minority Participation (LSAMP) Program.

Qualifications: U.S. citizen or permanent resident continuing enrollment in college after the Internship.

Application deadline: February 10, 2012

Application instructions are available at: <http://hilo.hawaii.edu/uhintern/apply/index.php>

FISU Forum March 26-31, 2012
Taipei City, Chinese Taipei
Contribution opportunities to two FISU Forum sub-themes

FISU (International University Sports Federation) and the Organising Committee for the 2012 Forum would like to offer an opportunity unique firstly to 'student delegates' and secondly to 'senior' (non-student) delegates to the Forum, to both promote best practice and maybe present a local model relating to two of the Forum sub-themes. These are mildly competitive opportunities, and submissions will be assessed by members of CESU in order to deliver an exciting programme for the Forum and to offer delegates an opportunity to gain first-hand experience of presenting to an audience in an atmosphere of enquiry and support.

1. Student delegate opportunity

Sub-theme: University sport as fertile ground for leadership development

Whilst a keynote speaker will be appointed to this sub-theme by the OC, the remaining keynote speaker opportunities will be offered to up to three student delegates to the Forum who will have qualified through the submission of a small piece of work prior to the event (ie by March 2nd, 2012).

A student delegate will need to prepare a PowerPoint presentation of no more than 5 slides together with the accompanying dialogue (offered in written form) which s/he would give if invited to present, based on this topic. The presentation may last no longer than 15 minutes. It can be presented in French or English. By calling the delegate a student, this will be defined as a student in current, full time higher education or one year down during academic year 2011-12.

Using the sub-theme title above, the student delegate is asked to demonstrate what leadership knowledge and skills s/he has developed through reference to his/her roles and experience in the last 2-5 years in sport in university, in his/her NUSF (National University Sport Federation) and even in continental federation activity, and then enlarge on how he/she will apply that knowledge skill and experience to develop the agenda for the new Student Committee which is now being established in FISU.

A student delegate's submission may arrive by e-mail plus attachment addressed to Kole Gjelosaj at k.gjelosaj@fisunet.net, or be addressed to Kole at the FISU Headquarters address in Brussels by overland postage, but the presentation and text must be enclosed in a disc or USB stick. Whichever method a delegate chooses, March 2nd, 2012 is the closing date for submission.

CESU will select the final student delegate speakers for this sub-theme for the Forum during the first full week in March (3-10 March, 2012) and FISU office will inform the winners of their position in the Forum programme by 12 March, 2012.

Note: FISU is formally establishing a Students Committee during 2011-12: three out of the ten members of this committee will be selected to the Students Committee during the FISU Forum in Taipei, and will serve on the FISU Students Committee for a period of two (2) years. Seven (7) members were selected back in November 2011 via a nomination process launched in September 2011, and the remaining 3 positions will be selected by CESU by the end of the Forum.

The outcomes of work around this sub-theme may be used as one of the assessment tools toward selection to serve within FISU in the Students Committee over the next 2 years, so student delegates are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

For additional information concerning this opportunity, please visit Ed Imo's office located at the Gym or email him at e.imo@amsamoa.edu or call 699-6080.

Word of the Day

Admonition (ad-muh-NISH-uhn), noun:

1. Gentle or friendly reproof.
2. Counseling against a fault or oversight; friendly caution or warning

After debating whether Keayne should be excommunicated, the congregation concluded that an admonition would suffice.

WEIRD LAWS:

- 1) In San Diego, CA-The owners of houses with Christmas lights past Feb 2nd may be fined up to $250.
- 2) In Los Angeles, CA- It is illegal to cry on the witness stand
- 3) In Elko, NV-Everyone walking the streets is required to wear a mask!
- 4) In Florida, it is illegal to skateboard without a license
- 5) In Miami Beach, FL-Persons face up to 30 days for selling oranges on the sidewalk

LOGIC PROBLEM

A SAFE PLACE:

Frank leaves home. When he tries to return, a man wearing a mask blocks his path.

- 1.) What is Frank doing?
- 2.) What is the masked man's occupation?
- 3.) Where is Frank's "safe place?"

FUN FACTS:

(Celebrity Edition)

- Elvis had a twin!!!
- Walt Disney, the creator of Mickey Mouse, was afraid of mice.
- Michael Jordan was cut from his high school basketball team his sophomore year
- In high school, Robin Williams was voted "Least Likely to Succeed"
- Halle Berry's stunt double, in the movie "Cat Woman" was in fact a man.

(River Crossing: Solution)

The man first takes the chicken across, leaving it on the other side. He returns alone in the canoe and picks up the bag of grain. After bringing across the grain, he takes the chicken back to the original side, dropping him off, and picking up the fox. After bringing the fox to the other side, and leaving it with the grain, the man returns back to the original side, retrieving the chicken, and making his 3rd and final trip crossing the river. At no point was the fox left alone with the chicken, or the chicken with the grain ☺

*Thought for the day:
When in doubt just take the next small step ☺*
